

Conte Vineyard RRV

2009

Russian River Valley Sonoma County Zinfandel

A field blend of 83% Zin 12% Petite
Sirah, 2% Carignan, 2% Alacante
Bouchet & 1% Grenache

'...powerhouse aspect of zinfandel...it unapologetically punches you in the face...blackberry and bramble-fruit...' hosemasterofwine.com

'...Of the group, this offers the darkest, earthiest character. If any of these is a steak wine, this is the one.'
Chapel Hill Wine Company

 88

WINE GUERRILLA
Conte Vineyard
Sonoma County. Russian River Valley. 2009

Smelling deeply of well-defined, ripe-berry fruit and sporting a nice trim of sympathetic sweet oak, this bottling shows a touch of sophistication in the nose and follows with like-minded flavors that are ripe but always in control. It picks up a minor edge of finishing heat but does not lose its fruity bearings, and a couple of years in the bottle will help.
Connoursuers' Guide to California Wines

only 238 cases produced

www.wineguerrilla.com
news on wines, events & tastings

THE ART AND SOUL OF ZINFANDEL

unfiltered & unfined