Sonoma County Zinfandel

Ah, Sonoma County-terroir the Wine Guerrilla knows well. Our humble beginnings trace to these rolling hills. You could say it's in our blood. Just like our Sonoma County Zin. The 2009 vintage of this sexy Zinfandel goes with all known food. Or is equally good all by itself. You're the decider.

WINE GUERRILLA
Sonoma County 2009
GOOD VALUE

The Wine Guerrilla collection is unquestionably a characterful lot, but this fruity, well-focused effort wins a nod as the best balanced of the bunch. It is full-bodied and sleek at one and the same time, as it is both vital and rich, and, while it is very good at the moment, it has the structure and depth to be better yet if allowed another three to five years of aging. It stands as one of the most priceworthy choices of this issue.
